Bryan Campbell is a youth influential speaker and mindset coach. He has over forty years of expert experience in educating employees and students all over the United States. Bryan is sought after for his ability to engage and energize students and teachers to build a Never Give Up On Yourself Attitude.

Bryan has overcome sexual molestation at the age of twelve, teenage bullying, and paralysis following a sports injury. By teaching others about conquering obstacles with intentions, he has drawn on the adversities in his life to create a Four Pillars Program.

Bryan’s empowering message encourages his audience to take The Next Step.
